Community Action Partnership's Finally Home! seminar will be held August 23rd, 24th & 25th, 2010 and we still have room. We are charging $20 for singles and $25 for couples. The fee may be waived for those earning less than 200% of the poverty level.

The 8 hours of instruction, from 8:30am – 5pm, is designed for anyone interested in purchasing a home and reviews have been outstanding. Each attendee receives a book from Finally Home and certificates of completion from both Idaho Housing and Finance Association and the Washington State Housing Finance Commission.

Additional handouts and information are available on a wide variety of topics such as tax benefits, purchasing foreclosures, credit repair, inspections, negotiations, government programs, and finding the best deals. The seminars are held in the Community Action Partnership Community Room.

The instructor is CAP Housing Director, Barbara Leachman, MEd. She has 20 years of experience in residential lending, development, investing, property management, and homebuyer education. The class often includes guest speakers from the mortgage lending, real estate sales, insurance, and home inspection industries.
